LHC Celebrates 15th Anniversary in 2017

This year marks the 15th anniversary of Leadership Health Care (LHC), the Council's initiative to foster the next generation of health care leaders. Since it began back in 2002, LHC has provided professionals with ongoing opportunities to develop their knowledge of the health care industry through educational events and networking opportunities.

"It is a privilege to work with the LHC board and membership as we move into the initiative's 15th year," said Kelly West, director of talent development for the Council. "LHC has done so much over the past 15 years and we only hope to continue to grow and build upon these successes."

Thank you to LHC members for their continued support and involvement. In December, LHC hosted more than 200 members for the annual holiday awards and reception at Adventure Science Center. Pictures here.

LHC members gathered for an executive briefing with Neil de Crescenzo, president and CEO of Change Healthcare, who highlighted some critical aspects of how one can become a leader within the health care industry. He also discussed the importance of culture and transparency at Change Healthcare. More here.

LHC hosted an industry tour at Alive Hospice, the only not-for-profit, community-based hospice in Middle Tennessee. Founded in 1975, the mission of Alive Hospice is to provide loving care to people with life-threatening illnesses, support to their families and service to the community in a spirit of enriching lives. In addition to touring its headquarters, LHC Members learned how the Alive Hospice team serves more than 3,400 patients and their families on an annual basis. More here.
