COUNCIL INITIATIVES

Nashville health care executives influence the delivery of care across the globe. In an effort to further the talents of these emerging and established leaders, the Council offers two initiatives to foster growth and success.

The Council Fellows is designed to engage and educate the executives who will carry the industry forward. Co-chaired by former U.S. Senate Majority Leader Bill Frist, M.D. (founder, Council Fellows), and Larry Van Horn, Ph.D., health care management and economics professor at the Owen Graduate School of Management at Vanderbilt University, the national initiative brings together select executives to explore new solutions that meet the challenges facing the U.S. health care system in the years ahead. It engages these key professionals to better implement business strategies, create value, drive industry growth and effect change.

570,000+ jobs

$92+ billion in revenue

Globally, Nashville's health care industry generates more than $92 billion in revenue and more than 570,000 jobs.

THE COUNCIL EXPERIENCE

The Council is a premier network of nearly 300 corporate members, including Nashville-based and national health care companies and professional service firms. The Council's Board of Directors is made up of world-class executives in the health care field and is chaired by R. Milton Johnson, chairman and CEO, HCA Healthcare.

Leadership and Innovation

Since 1995, the Council has served as a trusted source for information on trends that influence the health care industry. The Council's acclaimed members-only programs range from large ballroom events to small-group gatherings and provide executives with unparalleled access to national policymakers, industry innovators and thought leaders. Briefings focused on finance, policy and trends provide the vital information necessary to make well-informed decisions that promote continued business growth and high-quality patient care. Additionally, the Council presents one-of-a-kind networking opportunities within the nation's health care industry capital.
